GOVERNOR THIRU CH.VIDYASAGAR RAO DIRECTS VICE-CHANCELLORS TO INITIATE CASHLESS TRANSACTION IN UNIVERSITIES AND AFFILIATED COLLEGES

Thiru Ch.Vidyasagar Rao, Hon'ble Governor of Tamil Nadu has directed all Vice-Chancellors/Registrars in Tamil Nadu to shift to Electronic transfers and e-payments for day-to-day activities of the Universities and affiliated colleges. These efforts are introduced in line with the vision of creating a cashless society by Thiru Narendra Modi, Hon'ble Prime Minister of India.

For enabling a smooth transition to a cashless society the Hon'ble Prime Minister has appealed to the youth to educate 10 families daily on how to conduct cashless transactions through mobile apps, mobile banking, debit and credit cards. The Governor has advised the students community to educate their family and neighbours for transforming India into a Digital one. The Governor has observed on the need for creating awareness about the different methodologies through which money transaction can be done electronically in the Universities and Colleges. The Governor has instructed the Higher Educational Institutions and Universities to draw up a detailed time bound strategy involving all stake holders and has asked for a detailed report in this regard.
