GOVERNOR THIRU. PUROHIT CONGRATUALTES CHENNAITES ON UNESCO'S RECOGNITION

It is a matter of pride and honour for the Chennaites that Chennai has been included in the "UNESCO's Creative Cities Network" for its rich musical tradition. It is a momentous and joyous occasion that this great recognition has come when we are approaching the December Music Festival.

As the Governor of Tamil Nadu, the first citizen of the State and as a resident of Chennai, I am happy that Chennai has been promoting our rich culture, tradition and nurturing Carnatic music, classical dance, drama and arts and strengthening the fabric of our national unity in diversity.

I congratulate all the artists, sabhas, connoisseurs of art, rasikas and Chennaites on this historic occasion and wish Tamil Nadu adds many more diamonds in the Crown of India.
